Speaking of healthy, you will find the Keys To Your Health on pages 16 and 17.

A new year can be a fresh start and a good time to take steps for a better you. Find what you need inside to get started. You will also find Key Services on pages 8 and 9 to help keep your home healthy and in good shape. On to something more decadent, this month brings the Food and Wine Festival along with the Master Chef Classic. The festival is such a great event and you can read more about it in Mark Certonio's What to Eat Now column on pages 12 and 13.

On December 4th we once again attended the annual POSH (Paws Often Steal Hearts) event at the Audubon House and Tropical Gardens. It's a fun event put on by the SSDC (Sunset Social Drinking Club) to raise money for the SPCA. This year they were able to raise more than $20,000! The SSDC puts a lot of work into this event every year and it's well worth attending.

A big shout out to Ben Hennington of the SSDC for all his hard work!

*H*appy New Year everyone! 2015 is here and Our Keys would like to wish you all a healthy and prosperous year.

All about Pairings, People & Passion

We are talking about what happens in Key West and what we think is important in the food and wine business in our town and what we eat that matters.

This month we are talking about all things food and wine, specifically The Key West Food and Wine Festival held at the end of January.

We all must eat and we all must drink, so why not enjoy the best there is to offer! Meet a few of the people that make it truly special, and in the end it's about the experiences we create and the memories we make.

I believe food and drink are the catalyst for bringing all people together throughout history. Art, architecture, nature, and community. These are the people that make this experience.

ART

Meet Steve "Koz" Koslowsky, artist and co-owner of The Green World Gallery: "we are passionate about supporting our communities and charitable events."

Through his art, Koz takes us on a whimsical adventure under the sea and to tropical paradises. His canvases explode with vibrant colors as he portrays fish, sea horses, crabs, mermaids, reef life, and palm trees. He is recognized by the "fun" that he creates in his art and the "smiles" that he brings to those that view it. Pamela and Koz live in Key West and Ortonville, Michigan. Koz is the chosen artist for the 2015 official painting and this is his contribution.

This whimsical original acrylic has been donated by Koz and is being auctioned to benefit Boys and Girls

Club of the Florida Keys. To participate in the auction, please go to 32auctions.com/Kozkwfwfkeywest. Koz also painted our official KWFWF artist bike #4.

COMMUNITY

Meet Kellee Bartley, event & fundraising coordinator for Visiting Nurse Association & Hospice of the Florida Keys.

12 | www.Our-Keys.com | January 2015

I can't remember exactly how I met Kellee, but I am sure we were at a local wine bar sipping wine. I have worked with Kellee on a few projects over the past few years, one being the festival's Grand Tasting. Kellee is super detailed, works hard and is very creative. I ran into her a month ago and she said, "I have an idea for a fundraiser" for her organization, and wondered what I thought. She told me her idea and I said, "lets do it."

Kellee has created an event that is a fun food event that is involving more than 30 individuals in our community raising money for a great cause, and this is her contribution.

ARCHITECTURE

Meet Nancy Stock, kitchen and bath designer and volunteer for Truman's Little White House

I was renovating my bathroom after Hurricane Wilma and this is how I met Nancy. Nancy is quietly motivated and committed to everything she touches with passion.

Fast forward a few years and Nancy is a volunteer at the Little White House. She has worked in that kitchen for years helping produce events and needs the money to update the kitchen.

When she told me about her idea, I was very excited to help her develop an event that could raise money for this renovation. So far she has raised more than $5,000 and still counting. Nancy's event has sold out for the past three years and this is her contribution.

Uva
 GOURMET SHOPPE
 (oo-vah)
 uvakeywest.com

519 FLEMING ST.
 KEY WEST

While the literal translation of “Uva” is grape in both Spanish and Italian, in English I think it means “hidden gem”, or “don’t leave”, or perhaps, “bring a date”.

Located at 519 Fleming in Old Town, Uva Gourmet Shoppe is owned and operated by local sommelier Mark Gambuzza and his wife, Dina

A budding shop that specializes in boutique wines and cheeses, Uva is steps from Duval yet offers items found nowhere else in the Keys.

“The idea came from not being able to find the good stuff down here,” Gambuzza explains, while giving a generous pour of a French sauvignon blanc so good that it makes you want to lick the condensation off the bottle.

The mantra at Uva is to make estate-grown wines and cheeses accessible and familiar to the general public. In other words, you’re not going to find this stuff at Publix.

“I want you to come in and I’ll teach you how to order a good bottle of wine,” Gambuzza preaches.

In recent years, according to Gambuzza, consumers have become comfortable with buying wine and cheese in supermarkets. As such, they usually walk away with a mass-produced brand name variety that stems from California.

In contrast, at Uva, Gambuzza will educate you on the wine selection process, offer multiple suggestions, and coordinate pairings based on your taste and preference.

“If customers aren’t sure what they want, I like to turn them on to other things. And it’s usually French, Spanish, or Italian”.

For locals looking to expand their wine and cheese repertoire, Uva offers free wine tastings conducted by Gambuzza himself. The only catch: you have to be in the Uva wine club. How do you become a member, you ask?

“If you frequent the store - you’re in,” Gambuzza says with a smirk.

Human papillomavirus (HPV) is a very common disease that people catch through touch — most often through sexual contact — that can develop into certain types of cancer later in life.

You can have HPV and not even know it, which is why vaccinating against the disease at an early age is so important.

If you are between the ages of 19 and 26, schedule an appointment for an HPV vaccination today.

Vaccinations are offered regardless of ability to pay.
